Applied Defenses And Preventative Tactics

A.D.A.P.T. After thirty years in the martial arts industry and over twenty years as a consultant to police departments nationwide, Earl Portnoy saw that there was a need to develop a system of self defense that could be taught at every level of experience. The A.D.A.P.T™ Street Survival Systems is NOT a martial arts system, but a series of tactics and techniques that can be taught and utilized at the street level by any person. Whether an Army National Guard unit preparing for deployment into a combat theater or a homemaker looking for “street-level” self-defense, the A.D.A.P.T™ Street Survival System is the answer.

The best of all worlds. Mr. Portnoy realized early in his career that any one system cannot be force-fit to apply to all defense needs. He began his search for the “best of the best” from the martial arts world, the traditional law enforcement world and military training. What evolved was a system of “best practices” in the self-defense arena, with a focus of tailoring the right skills with the right situation.

Who needs it? Anyone that might expect an unarmed confrontation is a candidate for the A.D.A.P.T™ system. From controlling unruly protesting crowds, to home invaders, to guests or patients that are acting out, the A.D.A.P.T™ will prepare the soldier, officer, hospital worker and homemaker for these eventualities. A.D.A.P.T™ is not a fighting system like many martial arts systems, BUT A SURVIVAL SYSTEM. The goal is not always to win, but to survive.
